Sir:-

In re Mrs. Lee Eli, No.1983 E.S. Ex. S.S."China" April 22, 1903, wife of native merchant, I have the honor to report that I have taken the sworn statements of the applicant and her husband, and that there are no discrepancies or contradictions in said testimony. The applicant furnished her marriage certificate certified to by Edward S. Bragg, U.S. Consul General at Hong Kong. Her husband also furnished his passport issued by the State Department. It is my opinion that Mrs. Lee Eli is the wife of Lee Eli who is a bona fide native merchant.

In re Look King, alias Kang Eli, #138, and Look Poong Shan, alias Lee Eli, #139, natives departing:

I have taken the statement of applicant, #139, alleged father of #138, and of alleged mother. They contain no discrepancies.

The nativity of #139, is established by two prior landing papers enclosed: 302, Oceanic, Apr. 28, 1894, and 1982, China, Apr. 22, 1903. The marital relation between him and the alleged mother is established by the alleged mother having been landed here as the wife of #139: 1983, Mrs. Lee Eli, wife of native, China, Apr. 22, 1908/

There is no question as to the nativity of applicant #138, as he was born subsequent to the above landing of his alleged mother.
